

ORDER YOUR LULAV AND ETROG SETS FOR SUKKOT

During the existence of the Jerusalem Temple, Sukkot was one of the three pilgrimage festivals where the Israelites were commanded to perform a pilgrimage to the Temple.

On each day of the holiday it is mandatory to perform a waving ceremony with the four species, commonly referred to as a Lulav and Etrog set. The way to celebrate the holiday of Sukkot is with your own set of Lulav and Etrog.

To place an order for an Lulav and Etrog set, please fill out the form below and write in the number of sets you wish to order. All orders must be received by Tuesday, September 12. Please return the form to B'nai Shalom, Attention: Debbie.

When your set(s) arrive, you will be notified by phone or email where and when to pick up your order. Thank you and Chag Sameth!
